

This is a timeline of fetal development, highlighting that most dramatic changes happen during the 1st trimester including organ systems & major body structures.

